We report an experiment that quantifies some properties of this type of afterimage . . . An explanation of the experimental results requires a theory that can account .. When both of the gated dipoles are included in FACADE processing, one gets an in- .. Neural dynamics of 1-D and 2-D brightness percep-. In the FACADE model, the properties of the gated dipole help to act as a reset signal to reduce Figure 2. A schematic of the main components of FACADE theory.
