

Moments In Time: Books 1-3 Moment of Impact Beyond Collin Fitzpatrick's dorm room, the students of his conservative college think he's straight, as does his Catholic family, who'd disown him if they learned the truth. Inside, he's safe with his sexy roommate Tanner D'Amico. Tanner wants to show the world how much he loves Collin, but Collin's not sure he's ready for the impact stepping outside will make. Moment of Truth Collin expected to spend another summer fixing cars and working at the college pizzeria. Instead, he's living in a beach house on Fire Island, and for the first time, he and Tanner can publicly be known as boyfriends. Being "out" takes some getting used to, and doubt and jealousy threaten their happiness. Collin and Tanner must confront the truth or risk losing it all. Moment of Clarity Spending the summer on Fire Island brought Collin and Tanner closer than ever, but back in their conservative college town, new challenges confront them. When Collin's relationship with Tanner becomes an issue in his brother's custody battle and Tanner struggles with feelings for his heartbroken friend Wendy, Collin wonders if everyone would be better off without him. In order to save them both, Tanner must make it clear his love for Collin is all that matters.
