

Zeke isn't a hero, has never seen himself having a happily ever after. He's been called many things: evil, twisted, sadistic, and dangerous. He is all of those things and more. He revels in them, embraces it, and uses it to make himself more powerful. He is a bad man all the way through. But then there is Alessandria, a woman chained, crying, frightened. The sadistic part of him wants her all for himself. He'll show her that the type of pain he wants to give her will ultimately bring her the pleasure she yearns for. Will Alessandria be able to handle the monster inside of Zeke, or like so many others, will she run?
